SALES LOGIX®

CRM made easy.

From the makers of ACT!

SalesLogix is organized and easy to use, putting everything your reps need to close the sale at their fingertips.

Start slow and grow as you go

We've all bitten off more than we can chew at one time or another. With many CRM solutions, it's easy to do.

But with SalesLogix QuickStart, you start with a few reasonable goals, put some wins under your belt, and get the buy-in you need for a successful CRM program.

You win over your boss. Your company wins the CRM solution that'll help you get more productive customer relationships — and sales.

Upgrade your contact manager

Now that you've grown, you might wish that you had all of your customer data in one place. Now you can.

SalesLogix QuickStart consolidates your customer data so you can better track, manage, and measure your effectiveness.

Even better, SalesLogix QuickStart comes from the same company that brings you ACT!, the easiest, most popular contact manager around. So transferring your data is practically seamless.

Of course, if you use other contact managers like Maximizer and GoldMine, you can still use SalesLogix QuickStart. It might be the best decision you've ever made.

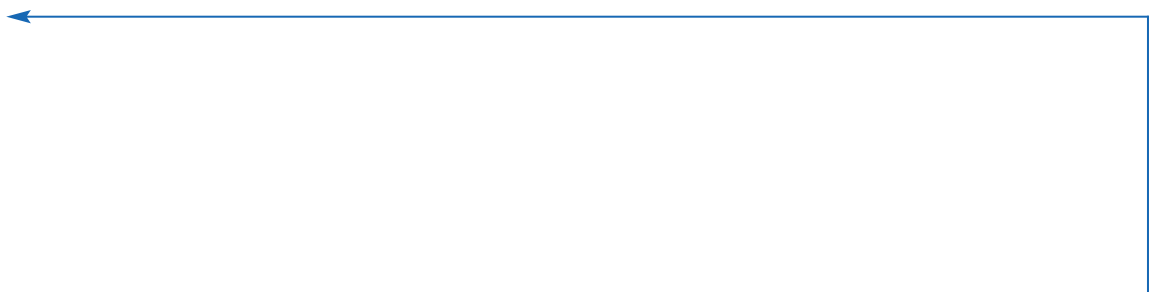

Analyze your sales pipeline for an accurate understanding of revenue potential and probability of close.

Get a fast return on your investment

SalesLogix QuickStart offers you something that most CRM solutions can't — serious payback.

Consider that many CRM implementations often take 12-18 months. And the longer the implementation takes, the higher your costs — and your frustration.

CRM

Unlike those CRM solutions, SalesLogix QuickStart gets you into CRM in less than 30 days. You start getting a return the moment it's in.

And after your initial 30-day implementation, you can add more licenses or more functionality such as support. It's your call.

The SpeedSearch knowledge base consolidates your support resources for fast, easy retrieval.

Take advantage of our ironclad guarantee

You probably haven't heard of a CRM guarantee before. Neither have we.

But SalesLogix QuickStart is unlike any other CRM solution. We know we can deliver a CRM solution to you in less than 30 days. And we know we can do it at a fixed, upfront price.

(We also know we're a little bit crazy.)

Really, we're not that crazy. We just know what companies like yours want because we're just like you. When we need a solution, we need it now. Not next year. Not millions of dollars later.

So if you need a CRM solution that takes you where you want to grow, consider SalesLogix QuickStart. We'll get your CRM going, then we'll stand behind it.
